

Contest	How It's Played	Number of Prizes Needed	Age Group
Limbo	Bend Backward under the Limbo stick - if you fall or hit the stick - You're Out! Person who can limbo the lowest is the winner. Need 2 adults to hold limbo stick.	Usually One Prize, but it's good to have a 2nd on hand if there's a Tie	Any age - from young kids to Teens
Lip Sync	Here's a chance to have a lot of happy winners at your party. . . DJ picks a song and divides everyone into groups (usually between 4-8 per group) Contestants try their best to lip sync and dance. DJ or members of your group will judge. Winners can be awarded for Best Overall Performance, Most Creative, Most Energy, or another category that applies.	Most parties like to do this contest twice! At least 4 prizes if you only want one group to win (double that if you want them to play again). We recommend having about 20+ inexpensive prizes so that a few teams can win. Suggestion for prizes: anything that comes in bulk - for younger kids: erasers, stickers; for Pre-Teens and Teens: glow bracelets, anything trendy like the rubber bracelets that come in shapes, blow up beachballs, note pads etc. . .	Kids over 8, 'Tweens, Teens, Adults
Dance Contest	Dance To Impress the Judge (DJ). Prizes awarded for Best Over-all, Most Creative etc... Can be done a couple times in a party if they are into it!	At least One Prize (Double that if you want to do it twice) Or have a few prizes so that more people can win in different categories.	'Tweens Teens
Bubble Gum Contest	Everyone gets 1 - 2 pieces of bubble gum Form a straight line. When the music stops, anyone who has a bubble raises their hand. and takes one step forward . The person who can keep the bubble going the longest is the winner. Need an adult judge from your group.	In addition to having a Big Bag of Bubble Gum..... Plan on having about 3-4 prizes for this game because sometimes there is a tie. If there isn't a tie they can do the contest a couple times in a row.	'Tweens Teens
Hoola Hoop	Everyone stands in a circle. one person has a hoola hoop placed diagonally -	You provide the hoola hoop and a small prize for each person that the music stops on, usually	Tweens Teens

Game	over one shoulder and step through with the opposite leg. Everyone joins hands and when the music starts the hoola hoop is passed from person to person without letting go. When the music stops, the person with the hoola hoop wins.	between 3 - 6 prizes are enough.
Guess The Song	The DJ will play one second of a song. If you know the name of the song, raise your hand. You will be called on from Left to Right or the direction that is decided on in advance. If you can guess the complete NAME of the SONG - you win! If you take more than 3 seconds to guess or guess the wrong song, the next person in line will try.... Etc...	To keep this game moving along, it's best to have enough prizes to award to a number of people. It's a quick game, because only a second of music is played before they start guessing. 5+ Prizes recommended.	Everyone! From Pre-School to Adults like this game.
Pass The Prize	Everyone stands in a circle. Kids will Pass around a small prize while the music is playing. When the music stops, the person with the prize keeps it. Variations: hop on one foot while passing prize around. Close your eyes. One hand behind your back. Etc ...	Depending on the ages and number of kids, it's best to have at least 3 prizes and you can have as many as you'd like. It's an easy game to win!	Pre-School age kids up to about age 7
Musical Chairs	Everyone knows how to do this. Line up two rows of chairs back to back. There should be one less chair than the number of people playing. Start walking around when the music starts and when it stops take a seat. Whoever is left standing wins a prize and decides what the remaining kids will do next: hop on one foot, bark like dogs, do the	1 or 2 Either 1 prize PER GUEST if each person who is "out" wins; or just 1 PRIZE for the final winner	Age 4 to 9 you will need to have enough room for the chairs, and have the chairs too! macarena... need an adult or one person to take away a chair each time someone is OUT,..

Freeze Dance	When the music starts - everyone begins dancing. When the music Stops - everyone freezes. If you don't stop, you're out. In large groups, instead of being "out" we have the ones who 'just can't freeze' move to one side so they can keep dancing till the game is over. The winner gets a prize.	Usually just one prize is needed. For large groups, to keep the party moving along, there could be more winners.	Ages 4 - 12
Freeze Dance in the Pool	Kids line up along the edge of the pool, with an arm's distance from the closest kid on both sides. (Make sure they know how to swim or can reach the bottom when they jump in) Music starts- everyone dances. When the music stops- everyone jumps in the water. The last person in stays in. everyone else climbs out . Repeat till there is one person standing. You can also do a reversal, where everyone starts out IN the pool and when the music stops they climb out, etc....	Usually one prize is needed.	Ages 5 - 12
